Kia Ora Tatou

Teachers have been busy with assessments and report writing over the past fortnight. You will receive a mid-year student report on Monday 23 June. This will be followed by an opportunity on Wednesday 25 June between 3pm and 8.30pm to discuss progress in more detail. Please visit www.schoolinterviews.co.nz Code qkpkz to book a slot with your child's teacher. If you need more than one interview it is best to leave a 10 minute gap in between. We urge you all to attend particularly if you have had little communication with your child's teacher this half year.

ACCOUNTABILITY

Thank you for all your support with accountability homework recently. children had lots of great stories to tell and it was fun to be able to share some of them at last week's school assembly.

GIVE A KID A BLANKET CHARITY

A mufti day is to be held tomorrow Friday 13 June for all those who support the Give a Kid a blanket charity. No money this time, just any warm items are gratefully received, pyjamas, duvets, blankets, beanies etc. Please bring items to the office foyer. These will be collected later in the day and distributed to families in need.

MATARIKI BAYSWATER FESTIVAL

Everyone is invited to this event 3 pm -7pm at Bayswater School on Saturday 14 June where there will be various stalls selling items and activities including a bonfire at the end of the festival. Hauraki kapa haka will be performing at 5.30pm on the stage.

FAMOUS PERSON

Congratulations to Myra Rathod who won a bronze medal on 8 June at the World Taekwondo N.Z. Championship held at AUT for Jumping Front Kick. We are very proud of her!

PARKING REMINDERS:

Parking on the wrong side of the road and facing the wrong way as was seen in Marsden St this week is not permitted.

We ask that you do not drive into the school grounds to pick up or drop children off unless it is an emergency situation or you have special dispensation. Thank you for your cooperation with these important safety matters.
